Based on Ungar's ENCYCLOPEDIA OF WORLD LITERATURE IN THE 20TH CENTURY, revised edition, this compact guide is a compilation of all the articles on African literatures that originally appeared in that widely acclaimed reference work.

- 38 national surveys
- 43 individual articles on major writers—among them Chinua Achebe, Wole Soyinka, Léopold Sédar Senghor, Athol Fugard, Nadine Gordimer
- Coverage encompasses the Arabic-speaking countries of northern Africa, including Egypt black and white writers of sub-Saharan Africa writing in English, French, Portuguese, Afrikaans, Creole languages, and the indigenous languages of the continent writing in the Malagasy Republic, Mauritius, and Réunion

- Article on the influential concept of Negritude
- Bibliographies with every article

Bringing together information available nowhere else in such a compact form, this comprehensive guide will prove of invaluable help to students and other readers interested in the rich but little-known literatures of Africa.
